Proceed By Blocks In Aachen

Operate With
A Deliberation
Intended to Save
American Lives

By Alex H. Singleton

LONDON, Oct. 16.—(P)—The last thin lifeline of the Nazi garrison of Aachen was cut in the battle of the Siegfried line today by American forces which battled to a junction from positions north and northeast of the city.

The junction was made at Wurselen, three miles north of the city, by the U. S. First army which crushed five frantic counterattacks in three days and knocked out 50 to 60 of the enemy's tanks. Wurselen was mopped up in the process.

With the city completely locked by encircling forces, the Germans were reduced to supplying the garrison by parachute.

Elsewhere Allied forces set patrols across the Neder Rhine in Holland, clamped a two-edge hold on the sea approaches to Antwerp in Belgium and captured a dozen towns, villages and forts in a broad advance in the Vosges which took French troops to within 32 miles of the Rhine.

But along the Moselle the bitter battle inside Fort Driant ended unsuccessfully after 10 days of close-quarter combat. American forces withdrew there before dawn Friday. The fort, with its maze of underground passages, mushroom pillboxes and steel doors had taken everything but American guns and planes could give it. Installations Americans had occupied were wrecked before the withdrawal from this bastion guarding the French city of Metz.

At Aachen, in the battle of the Siegfried line, U. S. First army troops fought off the third ferocious German countersmash in 24 hours and edged forward by blocks inside the city. Operations were proceeding slowly—with a deliberation intended to save American lives.

The Americans threw a German charge off Crucifix ridge, northeast of Aachen, and in cold and bloody fighting turned back a counterattack inside the city by Nazis crazily screaming "Heil Hitler" as they rushed the American lines.

30 Tanks Knocked Out
Thirty enemy tanks had been knocked out yesterday and today by artillery and planes at Aachen, a staff officer estimated.

British patrols crossing the Neder Rhine on probing expeditions, where British "Red Devil" paratroopers failed three weeks ago to hold the bridgehead menacing Adolf Hitler's comparatively defenseless northern frontier, were a tentative threat to Nazis fighting fanatically in the Western Netherlands.

Canadians were waging a crucial battle for the opening of Antwerp as a supply port before winter's gales, and the drive in the Vosges, on the south of the long Allied front, aimed at clearing the snowy range before winter. Supreme headquarters said the "sixth army group, comprising the First French army and the Seventh American army, had 'gained momentum' in the advance north of the Belfort gap.

Strong Resistance
"Gains were made against strong resistance along a wide front and several towns were freed," including Baccarat, Glonville, Fontenoy and Fremfontaine, the bulletin stated.

For three hours today the Germans gave furious battle with infantry and tanks in a desperate counterattack at Aachen, but a storm of American steel smashed the effort to knife through to that besieged Nazi garrison, field dispatches reported. Four enemy tanks were knocked out.

Sedalia Boys Meet Accidentally in India

Victor Bax, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bax, 612 Wilkerson street, recently wrote his parents that he had gone to communion at a chapel in India and as he was coming out he saw Pvt. Harry J. McNamara, Jr., who had also gone to the chapel. He said he had only a few minutes to talk to him as he had to get back to duty but he found that Pvt. McNamara was in a hospital there and he would go there to see him later.

The two boys had been friends in Sedalia. Pvt. McNamara is the grandson of Mrs. Isabella McNamara, 824 West Sixth street, with whom he made his home.

Enters Hospital
Pfc. Eugene A. Strelow of 1214 West Second street, Sedalia, has been admitted to Moore General hospital, Saffmanova, N. C., for treatment.

R. G. Cowherd, Educator, to Teach in Mich.

Assigned to History Department at Kalamazoo College

Dr. Raymond Gibson Cowherd, a native Sedalian, brother of A. M. Cowherd, 703 East Sixteenth street, has recently been appointed a member of the faculty, in the history department, of Kalamazoo College at Kalamazoo, Mich.

The college newspaper of recent date has the following concerning him:

"Dr. Raymond Gibson Cowherd, eastern scholar and historian, has been appointed assistant professor of history at this college and will act as head of the department. Dr. Cowherd succeeds Willis F. Dunbar who has been granted a sabbatical leave and earned his M. A. in 1936 and Ph. D. in 1940 from the University of Pennsylvania. He attended William Jewell on scholarship for four years. He held scholarships at the University of Pennsylvania for three years. His major graduate work was taken in history and minor work was done in economics and sociology. Since finishing his degree, Dr. Cowherd has been doing intensive research on the political influence of the Protestant Dissenters of England. It extends the study begun for his doctor's thesis. This work will be ready for publication after the war.

"Dr. Cowherd, born and reared in Sedalia, has had experience as minister of a Baptist church. He is married and will live in Kalamazoo, Mich., with his wife and daughter of ten."

Furloughs are Uncertain

By William F. Arbogast
WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—(P)—The War Department, reporting that it now is returning to this country approximately 30,000 men monthly, says it can not increase the number substantially and continue to press the war "vigorously to an early conclusion."

The report, to the house military committee, was prepared as a result of increasing requests for furloughs for men serving abroad. To permit the return of even 30,000 men monthly, the Department said, "we must immobilize four to seven times this number, or the equivalent of eight to fourteen divisions. For every man that we add to this number being returned, the army would lose the effective use of from four to seven additional soldiers."

Selection of individuals to be returned under quotas assigned to overseas commanders, the report explained, is "the sole responsibility of the authorities in the theater." Determination is based on local conditions, with consideration given to the length of service of each individual, his value to his unit and "the morale of the individuals in the unit, including the extent of rebuilding of mind and body required."

Cpl. L. H. Hall, Sedalia, Chats With German Medical Soldier

A U. S. ARMY GENERAL HOS.

PITAL, England, Oct. 16.—Hit by mortar fragments as he was working his way to the front to aid the wounded near Falaise, Corporal Lewis H. Hall, 28, of 415 North Prospect avenue, Sedalia, Mo., is now recovering at this United States general hospital in England. Evacuated to England by air the medical aid man is making a "satisfactory recovery and will return to duty soon," said his ward surgeon.

Cpl. Hall told how he chatted once with a German medical soldier on a Normandy battlefield while the bullets were whistling overhead.

"Our troops were behind one hedge and the Germans were on the other side of the field. In the middle of the field were two wounded men," he said. "Some of our men tried to cross the field but they were hit. I walked out to give them first aid and while I was there a German medical soldier came out to talk to me. He spoke very good English and asked me if I needed any help. He even offered me his canteen of water, because he had heard the Americans didn't have very much water."

"When I had finished dressing the wounded Americans I was working on, the German medic shook hands with me and then went back to his lines. While I was there talking to him I could see the German soldiers moving over in back of their hedge. Respected Medical Aid Men

"The Germans usually did not fire on our medical aid men and we never fired on theirs," Corporal Hall said.

"We wore red crosses on our sleeves, on our helmets as well, and they could identify us easily. The only time I was ever shot at was by a sniper. I was hugging the ground pretty close and every time I moved the sniper sent a bullet right over my head."

Cpl. Hall said he always walked or ran on the battle field and made no effort to take cover unless the military fire was heavy. While walking behind the lines toward the front, a mortar shell fell near him and he was hit in the foot by flying shrapnel. He gave himself first aid treatment and made his way back to a battalion aid station where he received medical care. Later he was evacuated to this hospital, crossing the channel in one of the big C-47 planes used to bring wounded back to England.

State Funeral For Rommel

LONDON, Oct. 16.—(P)—Doubt over the fate of Field Marshal Erwin Rommel, famed commander of the Afrika Korps and one of the ablest leaders in the German army, was dispelled yesterday when the Berlin radio announced that he had died of wounds.

Rumors of Rommel's death had been current since late July when Allied field dispatches quoted German prisoners as saying he had succumbed to injuries suffered when his car was strafed by Allied planes in Normandy. The Germans subsequently denied his death but acknowledged he had suffered a brain concussion and other injuries in an automobile accident during a strafing attack on July 17.

The Berlin broadcast yesterday did not say how Rommel was wounded or when he had died, but said Adolf Hitler had ordered a state funeral. The announcement described him as one of Germany's "most successful army leaders."

Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hall of the Sedalia address, Cpl. Hall has been in the army nearly two years. He spent eight months in Iceland, another nine months in Ireland and finished his training in England where he spent four months.

He was employed by the Missouri Pacific railroad before entering the service.

Three Held for Robbery at Lincoln, Mo.

Sedalia Woman Among Trio, in Jail at Warsaw

Sheriff Louis J. Miesner, Warsaw, today announced the arrest of three persons, Chester Foster, a Benton county resident, Bessie Cramer, 900 South Missouri avenue, Sedalia, and Goldie Ollita Smith, 626 S. W. Ninth Street, Oklahoma City, Okla., for burglary and larceny in connection with the robbing of a garage on Highway 65 on the outskirts of Lincoln, Mo., last Tuesday night.

The garage owned by Charles Carpenter was burglarized sometime the night of October 10, at which time merchandise, liquor, and money, all valued at between $700 and $800 were taken.

According to the sheriff six cases of whiskey, five tires and four tubes, $200 in cash, several men's bill folds, three cartons of cigarettes, a box of cigars and other articles were taken. The thieves gained entrance to the place by breaking a window at the rear of the garage.

Fourth Person Sought

It was indicated a fourth person is being sought by the sheriff and the State Highway Patrol. The Smith girl, who told officers she was eighteen years old, was picked up early last Friday morning near Sixth street and Montgomery avenue, and taken to the local county jail for questioning. She was later turned over to Sheriff Miesner.

Bessie Cramer was likewise picked up in Sedalia, at her home, while Foster was apprehended by Sheriff Miesner in Benton county. The trio is being held in the Benton county jail pending a preliminary hearing.

Restaurant Closed For A While, Owner Was Tired

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 16.—(P)—"Closed for awhile. I'm tired," reads a sign in the window of Max T. Ehler's restaurant.

Ehler explained that his waitress quit seven times and was rehired six times in less than a year, so he gave up and took a three-week vacation.

Last week, a sign in the window read: "Waitress wanted. Will get a divorce and marry you if necessary." It didn't work.

Real Feelings Expressed by Nazi in Diary

Hopes Lord Will Protect Him so he May Return Home

AACHEN, Germany, Oct. 15.—(Delayed)—(P)—In the clothing of a dead German sergeant, American soldiers found a diary today which indicated what the pulverizing attack on Aachen is doing to the morale of some enemy troops.

Here was its final entry, dated Oct. 2, and showing, incidentally, that "Franz" had been too busy to keep it up:

"It is almost midnight; it is only 60 meters to the American lines. For five days the iron language of the front has been drumming in my ears."

"How different it is here from Russia! There the eternal brrrrp of the machine gun and the roaring of the steppes of Asia. Here, the uninterrupted and nerve-wrecking artillery and mortar fire."

"We are in this position in the Aachen area with continuous uneasiness in our hearts that we might be encircled. Nobody told us anything about the danger but everybody can see for himself that the circle around us is being closed."

"An enemy loud speaker announces clearly 'German soldiers, surrender! You are encircled. Our planes bomb Aachen. Our artillery shells Aachen. You have no other way out.'"

"Is that actually true? Then we hear some recent hit songs until the finale comes with a tremendous barrage from all the guns around Aachen."

"There is nothing else which could be more demoralizing. What would my wife say, or my parents, if they knew about me right now? I wonder whether I'll see them again. Must I end like Louis in the front at Stalingrad? I'm afraid nobody knows the answer to all these questions, but the lord might protect me once more as he has so many times before and I might survive to return safely to my loved ones."

D. S. Lamm Turns in First War Chest Report

Mr. Lamm turned his report over to Heber U. Hunt, chairman of the drive, which has its headquarters at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Mr. Hunt asks for an early report from the workers.

He is being held there for return to India and a probable court martial, the command related.

Two others were picked up by Second Service Command military police in New York and the whereabouts of the fourth is not known, the command added.

Jap Situation Tense

TODAY on the Warfronts

ROME, Oct. 16.—(P)—American troops have captured the hill town of Livergnano, 10 miles south of Bologna, which the Germans had defended fanatically for days. Allied headquarters announced today.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—(P)—American planes bombed Salzburg in southeast Germany not far from Hitler's Berchtesgaden mountain retreat, the German radio announced.

Before dawn, British heavy bombers in great strength attacked the German ports of Wilhelmshaven and Hamburg during electrical storms.

The enemy said the Cathedral of Salzburg was damaged heavily and the Mozart House, home of the great composer, was destroyed.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—(P)—Berlin radio indicated today that the Germans had decided to evacuate Greece.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—(P)—The German sea escape route from northern Finland has been cut with the capture of the Arctic port of Petsamo and advancing Red Army tanks were reported today to have won an important road junction close to the Norwegian border.

Pravda of Moscow described the newly won highway center as the "key to Norway," without naming it further and said it had been captured after Russian forces beat off a counterattack by a German armored column retreating toward Norway.

ROME, Oct. 16.—(P)—A strong British naval force has arrived at Piraeus, the port of Athens, and will begin disembarking troops today. Allied headquarters announced.

The fleet, headed by the 7,000-ton cruiser Orion flying the flag of Rear Admiral J. M. Mansfield, anchored in the roadstead last evening after being delayed by enemy minefields, the bulletin said.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—(P)—An exceptionally intense ack-ack barrage met flying bombs fired during the night against southern England and at least three were blasted from the sky.

Hungarians Fight Among Themselves

Petition for Peace Damaging To the Germans

By Wade Werner

LONDON, Oct. 16.—(P)—Hungary has toppled into political chaos after recent Nicholas Horthy's dramatic bid for peace.

Horthy's quick eclipse—at least on the Budapest radio—by Count Ferenc Szalasy's last-ditch crowd of Arrow Cross Nazis only emphasized that Hungarians were fighting among themselves instead of against the invading Red Army. Reports via Stockholm today said that in some places they were fighting the Germans too.

This all added up to a melting of the barrier between the Red Army and a great drive past Budapest to Vienna and a possible final decision in the east.

The Germans took quick measures to stave off the debacle but admitted through the official German news agency that Horthy's petition for an armistice had "greatly damaged the waging of the war."

Horthy Escapes Arrest

Berlin dispatches to Stockholm newspapers said Nazi troops swiftly took over all strategic buildings in Budapest and that a new government shortly would "try to get Hungarian troops to continue battle on the German side." One report said Horthy had escaped arrest and was holding out in a strongly fortified castle.

A transoceanic broadcast from Germany said a "detailed declaration" on the Hungarian developments would be forthcoming later. Meanwhile Berlin's morning papers refrained from mentioning Hungary.

That Hitler and his advisers should pause for some fast thinking before explaining the Hungarian collapse to the war weary German people was only natural. It was far more than the defection of Hitler's last satellite—it must seem to any German like the crashing of the gate guarding the Reich's most vulnerable area."

Sedalian's Brother Killed in Car Accident

No details of the accident were given.

Surviving are his wife and three brothers, Mace, of Sedalia, John of Oak Grove and William of Kansas City.

Medical Men Are Winning Health Battle

Speaker Tells Rotarians Nation's Health is Good

The health of our nation is too important to be jeopardized by social experimentation, said Dr. W. W. Bauer, director of health, education and radio broadcasting for the American Medical Association, before the Rotary club at its noonday meeting. The speaker continued discussing his subject, "Health for Today," by asserting that before the war it was not considered that it would be essential to build up a tremendous armed force, so the standards for army acceptance in our forces were set up on the highest requirements of any country today or in human history.

This, said he, accounts in part for what we were led to believe were an alarming number of rejections on physical grounds. We were told that fifty per cent of those called were unable to pass the physical tests. But fifty per cent did pass and many of those who were turned back were so allocated on the basis of technical rejections or physical impairments that did not prevent them from doing a good job in civilian life. In addition to this, said Dr. Bauer, many of these originally rejected have been reclassified and are now serving in some branch of the armed forces.

Nation's Health Good

The nation's health is good, said the speaker. Evidence of this fact is seen in the low sickness rates in our armed forces and in the greater longevity among our civilian population. Life expectancy has risen to 64 years for men and 66 years for women. Maternity death rates have been materially reduced, being about one-third what it was ten years ago.

During the last war infant mortality rated as high as 240 per 1,000. Today it is down to from 30 to 20 per 1,000. All of this is attributable to the advances made in the field of preventative medicine; better control of contagious diseases, better sanitation, lower tuberculosis death rates; all of this is not accidental, the speaker continued. It is the result of work done by those who are responsible for the health of the country.

Suggests Checkup

In the realms of old age diseases, much has been done and can be done, to prevent death from heart disease, hardening of the arteries, high blood pressure, etc.

The speaker suggested a medical checkup once a year and a visit to a medical adviser when one was persistently indisposed. Health, said he, is an individual problem. It is a battle that we are winning through professional efforts and on the basis of free enterprise. We do not want our work handicapped by placing the whole responsibility in the hands of the surgeon general of the United States, because we do not think any one man qualified to cope with the health of the entire nation.

Lawrence Barnett Presided

Lawrence Barnett presided at the meeting. Guests for the day were E. C. Sellinger of St. Louis with E. A. Edwards; Cpl. Theodore Wells, Camp Breckinridge, Ky., and Sgt. William C. Wilson, MacDill Field, Florida, with Lewis Bahrenberg and Rev. W. M. Tisdale of Marionville, Mo., with Fred King.

Fierce Fighting Off Formosa; Imperial Fleet Finally Makes its Appearance

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—(P)—Superfortresses have attacked Formosa for the second time in 48 hours, striking installations at Okayama and Heito.

The second mission was accomplished without loss of aircraft, the 20th Airforce said.

Of four B-29's previously unreported on the October 14 mission, the airforce said, two are safe and ten of the 11 members of the crew are safe from a third plane that crashed at a forward base. This leaves only one superfortress lost on the two missions, both of which carried the heaviest bomb loads so far employed by the big planes.

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, PEARL HARBOR, Oct. 16.—(P)—A furious air-naval duel off Formosa, which began Friday, went into its third day today. Tokyo reported after officially announcing the imperial fleet had joined the battle.

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced yesterday morning that

By The Associated Press
Tokyo radio reported today that Japanese naval and air forces driving home attacks on American carrier forces off Formosa and the Philippines have knocked out scores of U. S. ships and set back the "impending invasion of the Philippines by at least two months." Claims of victory reported in various jubilant Japanese broadcasts varied from 40 to 52 U. S. warships sunk or damaged. Imperial communiques listed 40, including 11 aircraft carriers sunk and six damaged.

strong Japanese aerial attacks precipitated the engagement in mid-afternoon Friday and said "This fight is continuing." The Nipponese counterattack, their third of the Formosa campaign, followed new American raids on that island and Luzon.

The admiral issued a second communique at 6 p. m. (8:30 p. m., Pacific war time) but made no mention of the Formosa engagement in recounting routine aerial strikes from the Kuriles to the Marshalls. This indicated that radio silence prevented the Third fleet from making further reports. Nimitz has not confirmed the presence of Japanese surface units in the mounting battle. The Domei (Japanese) news agency, however, quoted a Tokyo imperial headquarters announcement last night as saying "the imperial fleet has finally made its appearance off Formosa." The federal communications commission intercepted the wireless dispatch, transmitted to Japanese-occupied areas. Super fortresses attacked military objectives in Formosa today in their second raid on the island, the war department announced.

Repeated Attacks

(Tokyo radio, in a broadcast intercepted by the federal communications commission, said Nipponese planes intercepted and pressed home "repeated fierce attacks" against a diversionary U. S. task force east of the Philippines.)

American carrier aircraft, sufficiently confident to divide their forces, attacked Formosa for the third consecutive day and Luzon for the sixth time at dawn Friday. Nimitz reported little air opposition was encountered over the targets. Preliminary reports indicated 11 Japanese planes were shot down and 30 destroyed around.

"Numerous single and twin engine enemy aircraft" attacked the American task forces that afternoon. Twenty-eight were shot down by anti-aircraft fire. Many others were known to have been destroyed in attacks on other units of the American force.

Prowler Reported

A prowler call was received at 10:44 o'clock Sunday night to 211 East Morgan street. The past several nights numerous calls have been received from addresses in this block on Morgan street, regarding prowlers.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 — Some of Dewey's advisers are planning to advise him to do the same thing regarding the FBI that he did regarding the state department when it was indicated he would like to make some kind of a continuing hook-up with Cordell Hull.

Unfortunately, the rumor has persisted, so far without denial, that Dewey, if elected, is planning to remove J. Edgar Hoover as head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The report is that just as Roosevelt has run the navy as his own pet department, so Dewey, if

J. Edgar Hoover came into the justice department during earlier Republican days. Roosevelt was smart enough to keep him on and strengthen his bureau considerably. In fact, during the Roosevelt administration the FBI has reached its peak in personnel, also has achieved an enviable record in preventing both sabotage and kidnapping.

Many Republicans feel it would be a serious error for Dewey to remove Hoover. They hope he will not let this report persist, especially in view of the wave of crime which follows every war and is sure to follow this one.

Three factors are likely to make the crime wave just as bad or worse after this war. One is juvenile delinquency, which has reached alarming proportions. Second is the fact that there is a certain small percentage of criminals in every army, and war always accentuates criminal instincts. Finally, a small fraction of war workers, now making big money, may resort to crime when that big money is cut off.

New Deal Boosts Dewey
President Roosevelt recently received a personal report on Governor Dewey's Oklahoma City meeting from ex-Senator Josh Lee, also of Oklahoma.

Lee reported that the rostrum of the auditorium from which Governor Dewey spoke had been built for a person of Oklahoma proportions, such as 6-foot-3 Governor Bob Kerr.

Prior to the meeting, Roosevelt-hating Senator Ed Moore had compiled a huge volume, about eight inches thick, of New Deal legislation. Senator Moore planned to use this for a dramatic climax when Dewey would wave the mass of New Deal laws before his audience. Senator Moore therefore sat on the platform clutching his book in his lap.

However, when the Republican chairman prepared to introduce Dewey to the audience, he saw that the rostrum would be too big for the GOP candidate. So he whisked the thick volume of New Deal laws out of Moore's lap and neatly placed it on the floor behind the rostrum.

"Down went the big book," wrote Josh Lee to FDR, "and up went Dewey, who made his Republican speech on the New Deal record."

Eisenhower's Teeth
"My only claim to distinction," modest General Eisenhower told Representative Karl Mundt, while the South Dakota congressman was in England, "is right here in my mouth."

He pointed to his justly famed teeth — a perfect 32, which have never felt a dentist's drill or have been subject to any repairs.

"The rest of my family has good teeth," Ike continued, "but they've all had to have dental work done. I was born in a little town in Texas — the rest of the family was born in Kansas after we moved up there. You know, there's been so much medical interest in my teeth that dentists have even gone down to that little town in Texas where I was born to find out if there isn't something in the water or the vegetation which makes super-teeth."

"Nature intended you to bite off a big job," Congressman Mundt told the general. "You've got your teeth in it now and you can't let it go until you've chewed up the rest of it."

Note — Scientists have been experimenting to discover the effect upon teeth of the water supply around Eisenhower's old home. He was born in Dennison, Texas, later lived in Abilene, Kas. The water system under study contains small amounts of fluorene, a poison. Fluorene has been found effective in preventing tooth decay, but is still considered risky to use generally. In addition to protecting the teeth, it has a tendency to blacken the teeth.

GERMANY WILL TRY IT AGAIN

By Sigrid Schultz

As an American newspaper correspondent in Berlin from 1919 to 1941, Sigrid Schultz saw at first hand the events that led from World War I to World War II. And she saw the behind-the-scenes preparation for the coming "war-in-peace" that she warns may culminate in World War III. This is the story of Germany's plans to win the peace, plans that even now are being put into effect.

THE disarmament of Germany, which was never completed, began while our soldiers were still in the Rhineland. Inflation gathered momentum and the Germans groaned ever more loudly that never could they pay the huge, fantastic sums demanded from them in reparations. Returned American occupation soldiers told at home of the sufferings they had seen. Many Americans, eager to be fair, conceded that the figure of 90 billion marks seemed astronomical. They could not know that Germany was hiding her resources, that her wealthy classes had smuggled billions out of Germany to safety in Switzerland.

Nor could they know that only six years after Hitler became Germany's master he would have spent the exact sum for rearmament which the postwar Germans had declared would enslave them for generations—90 billion marks. Instead of paying up, the financial experts allied with the secret general staff speeded up inflation for use as a political and economic weapon on the international front.

With the mark topping in Germany and on foreign markets as well, going up in smoke under the very eyes of the Allies, how could they expect Germany to pay reparations? Everybody from politician to industrialist wept crocodile tears over Germany's poverty. And, with each paroxysm of grief, succeeded in getting started, are worried politically about one thing — the absence of U. S. troops.

Actually, Churchill asked Roosevelt at Quebec to detail a part of the U. S. army in Italy for a trans-Adriatic campaign in Greece, Albania and Yugoslavia. But the president wanted to keep his eye on the main objective — Berlin; didn't want to detour into the Balkans.

So when it was finally decided that British troops were to land in Greece alone, General Sir Henry Maitland Wilson scaled down U. S. military observers to only 24 officers. All other U. S. officers were ruled out. The British especially ruled out U. S. naturalized officers of Greek birth who could speak the Greek language.

U. S. officers of Greek stock have been among the hardest workers in the army, have maintained excellent contact with the Greek underground. However, the British don't trust their politics. Most Greeks are dead opposed to Fascist King George. So U. S. Greek officers who speak the language might find out too much about the real sentiment of the Greek people.

Meanwhile, the liberated Greek people are wondering whether Churchill will continue his adamant policy of restoring the Greek king.

Note — General Wilson also limited the Russians to three observers, refused to permit them any access to the front or to liberated towns; also asked the main Russian military mission to leave Greece.

Looking Backward

Forty Years Ago

willing to forget the war, anxious to get on with business, and the French insisting on repayment for their losses, it was easy for the Germans to drive a wedge between the former Allies. Their story was that strong, powerful France was persecuting poor helpless, upright Germany.

When the rest of us realized that Germany had dodged her reparations payments, that she had not disarmed, that on the contrary she was bootlegging herself a new army, the British were charged with failing to co-operate with the French in enforcing the Versailles Treaty.

It was finally agreed that only businessmen could straighten out the gigantic problems involved. Under the leadership of General Charles Dawes, they set the new reparations figure at 41 billion gold marks—less than half the money indicated by Germany in rearmament under Hitler, not to mention the vast sums spent for military purposes before his advent. To make sure the Germans would not compromise the businessmen immediately by defaulting, the Dawes Commission provided ample loans for Germany.

Experts don't quite agree on the exact amounts loaned to Germany and invested in that country. Some of them put the total up to the end of the 1920's at $6,436,000,000 against which Germany paid only $4,462,976,000 in reparations. The balance went, not to improve the lot of the German people, but to prepare Germany's rearmament.

All kinds of latest-design, streamlined factories rose out of the money loaned to Germany. The old plants had been worn out, outgrown. They had run overtime to supply the Kaiser's armies. They ran full out during inflation, when Germany flooded the world with her products. The industrialists replaced them with factories which were the admiration of engineers and businessmen from abroad. These plants were ready in plenty of time to build up a huge reserve of weapons and equipment for World War II.

Besides the barn, fifteen tons of hay were burned.

The St. Louis National Live Stock Reporter of the 15th says: "C. W. McAninch, a prominent stockman of Pettis county, had in his own raising and breeding of 53 head of 320 pound hogs that topped the market at $5.55."

George J. ## Now You Can Feed Baby THIS EASY NEW WAY

A new sensational process of canning milk has been perfected in Springfield, Missouri. It is called DARICRAFT. News of this discovery is sweeping the country like wildfire. And no wonder. DARICRAFT Evaporated Milk, homogenized, possesses an amazing new and faithful flavor unlike anything tasted heretofore.

Babies often difficult to feed, respond to DARICRAFT in a remarkable percentage of cases. Many doctors are highly pleased with DARICRAFT and are prescribing it to their patients for baby's use, as well as for all purposes for which a fine wholesome milk can be used.

Why not ask your doctor about DARICRAFT and get some from your grocer.

Chill a can of DARICRAFT and whip it. It makes wonderful ice cream too. DARICRAFT is homogenized.

It's amazing what he can do. If there should be a dessert luncheon, at the home of Mrs. Oscar DeWolf, 503 South Park avenue. Mrs. J. U. Morris

white candles.

In commemoration of the birthday anniversary of James M.
Wood, President of Stephens College, a special candle-light service was observed. This ceremony was followed by group singing of Stephens' College songs. President Wood's birthday also has been designated as, "Stephens' Day," a day in which all daughters of the college, everywhere, pause a moment in the pleasure or business of the day to honor their Alma Mater.

Following the dessert, Mrs. Os-

Iowa State vs. M. U. Tigers This Saturday

May be Deciding Game in Big Six
Conference for 1944

By F. W. Crawford
KANSAS CITY, Oct. 16—(P)—

Whether soft touches or tough hombres who give out an education in hard knocks best fit a football team for its run down the home stretch may be decided Saturday at Columbia, Mo., when Iowa State meets the Missouri
Tigers.

The Cyclones and Missouri, co-leaders in the Big Six conference, were rated close behind the defending champion Oklahoma Sooners before the season's festivities opened.

Now the Iowans hold three high-scoring decisions over comparatively weak opposition and the Missourians have had their noses rubbed in the dirt three times by some of the best non-conference footballists of the nation. In addition they have a 33-0 Big Six verdict over Kansas State to their credit.

The battle-toughened Tigers found a scoring formula in the second half of their 39-27 loser to Minnesota Saturday. Three times their star halfback, Bill Dellastatious, drove across the Gopher goal in a vain attempt to lock the barn
after the horse was stolen.

Iowa State, impressive in a 25-0 drubbing of the Kansas Jayhawkers, is in good physical shape for the Missouri battle. Brought along slowly, the Cyclones should be ready to go all out against the Tigers.

The two other Big Six battles bring Oklahoma up against Kansas State at Norman, Okla., and the Nebraska Cornhuskers into Lawrence to test Kansas.

Kansas, with five games already played, has only one victory, a 47-0 rout of Washburn on the credit side of the books, plus a tie with Denver U.

The Cornhuskers have gone to war twice this fall, both times against Big Ten stalwarts. They lost a 39-0 debacle to Minnesota and another 54-0 at Bloomington Saturday to the Indiana Hoosiers.

Oklahoma, like Nebraska, is playing its first conference game this week. The Sooners, with a 50-50 break against Southwestern Conference opposition, will entertain the Kansas State Wildcats.
They dropped a 20-0 forwar passing affair to Texas at Dallas Saturday after a 21-14 conquest of the Texas Aggies the week before.

The conference standings:

TEAM	W.	L.	Pct.
Missouri	1	0	1.000
Iowa State	1	0	1.000
Oklahoma	0	0	.000
Nebraska	0	0	.000
Kansas	0	1	.000
Kansas State	0	1	.000

Schedule for Saturday, Oct. 21—
Iowa State at Missouri; Nebraska at Kansas; Kansas State at Oklahoma.

Saturday's results: Minnesota
39, Missouri 27; Indiana 54, Nebraska 0; Iowa State 25, Kansas
0; Michigan State 45, Kansas State 6.

Overseas sports roundup:

phia, former Penn State diver who was wounded twice at Anzio, sends word that he "got it again" in France—this time from shrapnel in his left arm. . . . After his leg was badly injured by mortar fire at Anzio, Mickey awoke on an operating table and soon learned that the surgeon was another Penn State grad. . . . When he finally remembered his wound, Mickey first asked if he would be able to dive again and then if his wound made it inadvisable for him to appear in those brief swimming trunks. . . . The doctor waved aside his worries. . . . "Listen, Mickey," he said, "when our plastic men get through with that leg it will look better than Betty Grable's shank."

Grandma Knew Just What To Do... AND HOW TO DO WITHOUT

Scraps, nails and string...paper, fats and fuel... anything and everything that could serve another time or another purpose was saved by our ancestors as a matter of dire necessity. The frugality of America's rugged pioneers helped to win battle after battle in our nation's history.

Today, our country asks us to practice that same frugality to help win the war, to save our way of life and to protect our freedom of opportunity for every American family.

Peace and the change-over from war-stimulated activity will pose many problems to challenge the ingenuity of every one of us. Fortune will favor the family that has learned to save and has bolstered its future by the purchase of War Bonds.
It's so much sounder to save than to wait to be saved.

REMEMBER FOR THRIFTY
HOUSEWIVES:

There's nourishment in simple, wartime meals,
but, to make them taste better—simply serve the world's most popular beer—cold, bubbling Budweiser.

Anheuser-Busch produces materials which go into the manufacture of:
Rubber • Aluminum • Medicines • B Complex Vitamins • Hospital Diets
Baby Foods • Bread and other Bakery products • Vitamin-fortified cattle feeds • Batteries • Paper • Soap and Textiles—to name a few.

Vitamin C In Rose Hips

Reported By Agriculture Extension Service

Next Week in the Kitchen

Temperatures for Stored Vegetables

No one storage place can be used successfully to store all vegetables. Their requirements with reference to temperature, moisture and ventilation vary with the type of crop.

A uniform temperature throughout the entire season for any crop will give best results.

A table giving the various storage requirements for crops and groups of crops can be obtained in the Missouri Agricultural Extension Service Circular 480, "Storing the Family Food Supply," a copy may be obtained from your county agent.

Do Not Burn Leaves

Most garden soils are low in organic matter. Leaves, well rotted, are an economical source of this material.

A soil high in organic matter is more productive because its ability to hold food material and moisture has been greatly increased. Its physical condition is improved which will assist in producing a larger quantity of higher quality vegetables.

The leaves plowed under in the fall with barnyard manure is worth much more than the ashes, if the leaves are burned.

Prevent Rabbit and Mouse Injury in the Fruit Plantings

Fruit plantings, particularly young fruit trees and berry and grape vines, are almost always subject to some rodent injury, and during severe winters when the ground is covered with snow for long periods of time the damage from rabbits and mice can be expected to be particularly severe.

All fruit trees under seven or eight years of age should be protected by means of a good wrap or tree guard and the protection applied during October. Chemical washes are not very dependable as a means of protecting trees from rabbits since in severe weather the rabbits become sufficiently hungry to eat them in spite of the repellent washes. If possible to secure, a good wire guard made of hardware cloth, chicken cloth or screen wire is the most satisfactory protection for the fruit trees. If these materials are not available a wrap made of wood veneer, corn stalks, newspapers or other material will prove satisfactory if carefully applied.

All grass should be removed from around the base of the fruit trees—an operation that will discourage the mowing of mice near the trunks of the trees. If field mice are particularly numerous, a poisoned bait should be applied to the area during the fall.

If rabbit injury on berry patches, such as raspberries and blackberries can only be prevented by fencing the area with chicken wire, a temporary fence around the bushes will prove an economical, practical and very effective means of protecting these fruit plants from rabbit injury.

Add 1 pound of fresh rose hips to 2 cups of boiling water and simmer 30 minutes. Press through a strainer to remove seeds and add just enough water to make 4 cups. Then use the liquid like raspberry juice to make either jam or jelly. For jelly, pectin must be added. Equal quantities of the strained pulp and water with sugar to taste make a pleasant fruit drink. The flavor of all these rose hip products is much like raspberry.

Recipes for rose hip sirup, soup, sherbert, pie, and other desserts may be found in Scandinavian cook books.

Good Meeting Of County PTA On Wednesday

Held Round Table Discussions On Hot School Lunches

The Pettis County Parent-Teacher Association held its first meeting of the year Wednesday afternoon at the Fifth Street Methodist church.

There were seven local units reporting, among them the two newly organized units, Woodlawn and Anderson.

Health Nurse Speaks
Miss Reba Gum, health nurse, spoke of the health program conducted through the schools. This year "vision tests" are being stressed.

Of the young men between the ages of eighteen and twenty-five rejected for military services, ninety percent have defective visions. With proper knowledge and care a large number of these cases could have been corrected in childhood.

Miss Mamie McCormick led a round table discussion of "Hot Lunches in Our School."

Several methods of preparing and serving meals in the school room were discussed but special emphasis was given the plan sponsored by the War Food Administration. Under this plan the school receives an allowance for agricultural products bought and used in preparing hot lunches. Detailed information about the plan may be obtained from C. F. Scotten, county superintendent.

The next meeting of the council will be held December 13 at the Methodist church.

Essay on Dandelions

By Francis J. Kelly
WASHINGTON, Oct. 16—(P)—If you feel an urge to grow dandelions, the government is right in there pitching for you. Just order a copy of Farmers' Bulletin 663 from the Department of Agriculture.

The bulletin tells how to pick up a little loose change by growing herbs and drug plants, such as digitalis, cascara, arnica, ginseng and pennyroyal. Dandelion root is highly regarded in some sections as a diuretic, stomachic and cholagogue, reference books explain.

The government assures the prospective dandelion rancher that the plant "will grow well in any good soil," but in the colder parts of the country "may require slight mulching during the winter if the roots tend to heave out of the soil."

"The seeds, which are sown in the spring, are drilled in rows 18 inches apart and covered one-half inch deep," the volume advises. "About three pounds of seed should sow an acre."

Mysteriously, the dandelion expert advises that the crop should be "kept free of weeds."

The government figures you're doing well if you can dig 1,000 to 1,500 pounds of dry roots an acre from second-year plants.

The essay on the dandelion ends on a depressing note: "A serious disadvantage attending the cultivation of this crop is the danger of seeding adjacent land with a very undesirable weed."

N. Y. Times Will Support FDR

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—(P)—The New York Times today announced its support of President Roosevelt for reelection in an editorial which said that on the issue of foreign policy "we believe that the scales tip heavily in favor of the Democratic party."

The Times, which supported Republican nominee Wendell L.
Willkie for the presidency in 1940,
stated:

"It seems safer to trust to the Democratic party, more united and consistent on this issue, the great responsibility of setting up the new international organization which is to defend the world's peace and of nursing that organization through the first critical challenges and the first bitter disappointments which all too likely it will face."

Terming Governor Thomas E.
Dewey's campaign discussions of foreign policy disappointing, the Times said Dewey had failed "to discourage even the more extreme wing of Republican isolationists from giving him its warm support."

Emphasizing that "we have not changed our minds about the domestic record of the Roosevelt administration," the Times said that "in some respects we believe that an administration led by Mr. Dewey would do a better job in the domestic field."

The Times criticized what it termed Republican opposition to Secretary of State Hull's multilateral trade-agreement plan.

Chattanooga Times For Roosevelt

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 16.
—(P)—The Chattanooga Times, which supported Wendell Willkie for president in 1940, called today for the re-election of President Roosevelt.

Guilty Pleas in Federal Court

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 16.—
(P)—John Bush Erhart pleaded guilty in federal district court today of using the mails to defraud two Columbia, Mo., women and was sentenced by Judge J. E.
Collet to five years in a federal prison.

Erhart, a 45-year-old ex-convict, admitted obtaining a diamond ring from Peggy Crandall
Gould and $1,000 from Mitzie
Gould Covey on false promises to obtain them jobs as models for advertising programs.

The ring and money were obtained as "security" for performance of their fake advertising contracts.

William A. Schien, Sedalia truck line operator, pleaded guilty of permitting his drivers to exceed the weekly limits on hours of work set by the interstate commerce commission's safety regulations. He was fined $20 on each of 12 counts, then fines of $100 on each of 13 other counts were suspended pending future compliance.

Dave McClain of Sedalia was fined $100 and sentenced to four months imprisonment on his plea of guilty of selling intoxicating liquor without a federal license.

Many Packages Go Overseas

This is the last day for mailing Christmas packages overseas and they may be mailed at the post office tonight until closing time at 5:40 o'clock.

An average of 400 packages a day have been mailed in Sedalia since September 15 and there has been very little difficulty in the mailing. Very few packages were overweight, or wrapped improperly. This was believed due to the special overseas boxes used so extensively this year.

Postmaster E. P. Mullaley stated that the cooperation of the public in mailing the packages this year was unusually good.

Forfeit $10
Traffic Bonds

Two charged with careless driving failed to appear in police court this morning and their cash bonds of $10 each were ordered forfeited by Magistrate C. W.
Bente.

Cecil Bohon, accompanied by several high school boys, was picked up Saturday night shortly before midnight, after police had warned him several times, about the way he had been driving.

Herbert C. Devasher, Warrensburg, arrested about 3 o'clock Sunday morning was the second defendant to forfeit his bond. He was arrested following an accident at Main street and Missouri avenue.

According to the police report
Devasher was driving west on Main street and failed to observe a stop sign, and drove out into Missouri avenue striking a 1937
Pontiac sedan driven by Stanley Reed, 1203 South Massachusetts avenue, going north on Missouri.
Considerable damage resulted to both vehicles.
